WHAT IS THE USC SCA SUMMER PROGRAM?

The USC School of Cinematic Arts, Summer Program is a six-week program that offers classes from different facets of the entertainment industry. Participants from around the world have an opportunity to attend intensive, creatively demanding and satisfying filmmaking courses.

COURSES

Courses are offered in the following subjects:

- Filmmaking
- Editing
- Animation
- Screenwriting
- Visual Effects
- Interactive Game Design
- Business of the Entertainment Industry

All courses are for college credit, earning the participant elective units that can be transferred to any other college or university.

APPLICATION

The USC School of Cinematic Arts, Summer Program has a rolling admission. Classes fill on a first-come, first-serve basis, based on acceptance into the program.

The application is located online at our website: cinema.usc.edu/summer

COST OF ATTENDANCE

Our program follows the current undergraduate rate of tuition for USC. The specific tuition rate (dollars per unit) can be found at our website.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT INFORMATION

Our program welcomes many international students each year and we are always excited to see more students apply.

Students who have been accepted and need a Visa, will be given documents to fill out to apply for an F-1 Visa from USC.

Students who already have a valid Visa to study in the USA (F-1 from another US school, J-1, O-1, E-2) may apply to our program under their current Visa. If accepted, a letter will be sent out listing the documents that are required.

International Application Deadline:
First Week of April

Prospective students can apply online at our website:
cinema.usc.edu/summer

MINOR STUDENT INFORMATION

Minimum age to be admitted into the program is 16 by the start of the program. If the student is turning 18 by the start of the program, they need to apply as adult.

Some of our courses have classes that have Minor Only sections. If a minor would like to apply to one of those courses, they MUST apply to the Minor section.

Required Documents:

- Official Transcripts
- Letter of Recommendation/
Good Standing

HOUSING

Adult Housing: USC student housing will be made available for anyone attending the program.

Minor Housing: Minor students housing is secured by the Summer Program office for all accepted students needing accommodations. The Minor dorm is supervised by Residential Advisors (1 per 10 students) for the duration of the program.
